

Nevada County Law Library is Back! (At least partially)

The Nevada County Law Library and Self-Help Center, located in the Nevada County Superior Court, 201 Church Street, Suite 9, Nevada City, will be open for in-person use of the library books and of public computers by appointment only starting on Wednesday, May 19, 2021.

We have limited capacity to keep COVID-19 compliant protocols in place. Masks and social distancing are required at all times. Personal appointments with Self-Help Center and Library staff are not included at this time. They will be available soon.

Appointments for the use of the Law Library may be made between the hours of 9:00 a.m. to noon and 1:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., Mondays through Thursdays, and on Fridays from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. We have 4 computers and 2 research rooms available in 30-minute blocks.

Please request your 30-minute time slot at law.library@nccourt.net, or 530-362-4309, ext. 4, indicating your first, second, and third choices. We will confirm your appointment. These appointments are not for Self-Help Center or Library staff consultation services. The Self-Help Center continues to be committed to provide the public with support remotely, via email to selfhelpcenter@nccourt.net, and by telephone to 530-362-4309, Option 4.

Drop-in services for the Law Library and Self-Help Center are NOT yet available.
