

GUARDIANSHIP OF THE PERSON
GENERAL ORDER ATTACHMENT PAGE

1. The court is exercising jurisdiction pursuant to Division 4 of the California Probate Code, beginning with section 1400. Notice was given as required in Division 4 of the California Probate Code, beginning with Section 1400. Any waiver of notice was granted only after determination by the court of good cause as provided in Probate Code §1460.
2. The sole authority and responsibility for care, custody and control of the minor(s) is hereby granted to the person(s) designated hereinabove as guardian(s) of the person.
3. Reasonable visitation with parents and other relatives of the minor(s) is ordered. The terms and conditions of visitation are in the guardian's discretion unless provided otherwise in a specific order.
4. A violation of this order may subject the party in violation to civil or criminal penalties, or both. The child abduction unit of the Nevada County District Attorney, 110 Union Street, Nevada City, California 95959 (phone number: (530) 265-1301).
5. The habitual residence of the minor(s) is in the State of California, United States of America. The Superior Court of California, in and for the County of Nevada, is the most appropriate forum for addressing custody and visitation orders for the minor(s).
6. The limitation in item 9.d. of this order does not preclude the guardian from receiving any child support payments, Social Security or other public benefits as determined by the appropriate agencies, for or related to the minor.
7. Any time the mailing address for the minor(s) changes, the guardian(s) shall complete and file the Judicial Council Form Change of Residence Notice (GC-080) with the Court. The guardian(s) shall not change the residence of the minor(s) to a place outside of California without first obtaining an order from this court approving the move.
8. Any time the mailing address for the guardian(s) changes, the guardian(s) shall complete and file the Judicial Council Form Notice of Change of Address (MC-040) with the court.
